

Loss Prevention Training

Monthly Focus Calendar

Month	Focus	Topics
-------	-------	--------

August	Back to School Mandatory Training As school staffs and faculty return to school sites it is a perfect time to address mandatory trainings.	Fire safety/extinguishers and plans Blood Borne Pathogens Asbestos awareness Hazard Communication
September	General Safety Now that the students are back and the real work has started, general safety should be prioritized.	Body Mechanics Safe ladder use Situational awareness Composite Risk Management
October	Special Skills Safety The Fall is a perfect time to concentrate on our skilled workers. As the school year progresses it is easy to get complacent without a constant emphasis on safe work habits.	Food Service Safety Sanitation in schools Electrical lock-out/tag-out Wheelchair lift safety Hearing conservation Hand and Power Tool safety Forklift Training, Boom lift and Scissor lift training
November	Cold Weather safety Our unique and rapidly changing winter weather frequently results in dangerous situations for our employees. We will discuss safety in icy, wet, and cold conditions.	Slips, trips and falls Cold weather driving Cold weather injury prevention School bus driver safety and cold weather driving
December	Stress Management The days are getting shorter and so are tempers. As we swing into the holiday season it is time to discuss stress management techniques.	Master Resiliency Training Suicide Prevention Conflict Resolution Stress Management
January	Safety Inspections Back to school after the winter break. How did all these things break and start leaking while we were gone? Find out how to inspect and prevent safety hazards.	How to conduct a school safety inspection Playground safety inspection Well Water Inspections
February	Office Ergonomics We are grinding through the school year. Time to pay some attention to the important people behind the scenes at their desks.	Work station inspections and adjustments Prevention of repetitive-motion injuries Ergonomics TTT (Train-the trainer) class
March	Fire Safety, IPM It will be getting warmer soon. This is a perfect opportunity to check out our evacuation drill programs and fire equipment. Also, before spraying pesticides in the spring you need to be trained.	Fire Equipment maintenance and operation Preventing School Arson Defensible Space, at work and at home Integrated Pest Management (IPM)
April	Hot Weather Injuries The hot summer heat is creeping back up on us. Time to prepare for a blistering summer in the Northstate by reviewing hot weather risks.	Identification and treatment of Heat Injuries

To schedule trainings: Choose the topic(s) you would like. Email Kurt Walling at kwalling@stsig.org, or call 530-221-6444. Ensure you include the date, specific location, and number of trainees expected.

NOTE: The monthly focus is only a guide, you can request any of the classes at any time. Classes take 45-60 minutes ea.